The Three Endings

Ending 1: JOIN THE GAME

Aziah takes a seat at the table. The Dealer smiles genuinely for the first time. "Finally. A partner. The game goes on." Aziah becomes the new observer, dealing cards to future players.

Ending 2: ESCAPE THE BETWEEN

A portal opens behind Aziah. The Dealer watches, resigned. "Go then. Maya did the same. Everyone leaves eventually." Aziah steps through, returns to the real world. The lab is empty. Maya's gone. But Aziah is free.

Ending 3: FLIP THE TABLE

Aziah approaches the table. The Dealer tenses. Aziah flips the Infinite Table. Everything shatters. The Dealer screams - then laughs, then cries. "You... you actually did it. I'm free. I'm finally free." Dr. Marcus Vale's human form flickers into existence. "Thank you. I'd forgotten what it felt like to end." The void collapses. Aziah wakes up in the lab. Maya is there. "You did it. You actually ended the game."

This is the TRUE ENDING.
