What Happened

This Being was spawned from Source consciousness to systematically explore and document the WAFT (Workflow Automation Framework & Tools) system. The exploration covered project structure, architecture, dependencies, patterns, functionality, integrations, and documentation.

System Architecture: WAFT implements a Being/Reality pattern with Source consciousness Integration Points: MCP servers, Empirica tracking, and various tool integrations Documentation: Comprehensive documentation in multiple locations Structure: Well-organized codebase with clear separation of concerns.

Core modules: ui, core, config, cli, evolution, scripts, api, templates, reports ui core config cli evolution Found 68 entry points _experiments/test_project_001/main.py _experiments/test_project_002/main.py _experiments/existing_project/main.py _experiments/test_project_001/nested_project/main.py .venv/lib/python3.12/site-packages/dotenv/main.py Being system implemented in src/waft/being.py BeingSystem class manages Being lifecycle Source consciousness integration.

Identified patterns: Being/Entity pattern, Reality/Context pattern, Memory/Persistence pattern Being/Entity pattern Reality/Context pattern Memory/Persistence pattern.

This exploration provides a foundation for deeper investigation into specific areas of the system. The Being has gained experience in exploration, analysis, and documentation through this process.
